

Daohe Global Group Limited

道和環球集團有限公司

(Incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability)

Stock Code: 915

(“Company”)

Shareholders’ rights and communication policy

1. Shareholders’ rights¹

The Company has only one class of shares. All shares have the same voting rights and are entitled to the dividend declared. The rights of the members (or shareholders) of the Company (“shareholders”) are set out in, amongst other things, the bye-laws (“Bye-laws”) of the Company and the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda (“Companies Act”).

1.1 Convening special general meeting on requisition

Shareholders holding at the date of deposit of the requisition not less than one-tenth of the paid up capital of the Company carrying the right of voting at general meetings of the Company shall have the right, by written requisition to the board (“Board”) or the secretary of the Company or at the registered office of the Company, to require a special general meeting to be called by the Board for the transaction of any business or resolution specified in such requisition pursuant to Bye-law 58 of the Bye-laws and Section 74 of the Companies Act. Under Bye-law 58 of the Bye-laws, such meeting shall be held in the form of a physical meeting only and within 2 months after the deposit of such requisition. If within 21 days of such deposit the Board fails to proceed to convene such meeting, the requisitionists themselves may convene such physical meeting in accordance with the provisions of Section 74(3) of the Companies Act.

The written requisition requiring a special general meeting to be called can be sent to the Company at the following address:

Head office and principal place of business of the Company

6/F., YHC Tower, 1 Sheung Yuet Road,

Kowloon Bay, Hong Kong

Attention: Company Secretary

1.2 Proposing resolution at general meeting

Shareholders may by written requisition request for including a resolution relating to matters in a general meeting by following the requirements and procedures as set out in Sections 79 and 80 of the Companies Act.

Subject to the provisions of the above-mentioned sections of the Companies Act, on the written requisition of members representing not less than one-twentieth of the total voting rights or 100 members, at the expense of the requisitionists unless the Company otherwise resolves, the Company shall give shareholders of the Company notice of any resolution which may properly be moved and is intended to be moved at that meeting and a relevant statement.

1.3 Notice of general meetings and “bundling” resolutions

Pursuant to Bye-law 59 of the Bye-laws, the Company will arrange for the notice to shareholders to be sent for annual general meetings not less than 21 clear days before the meeting and to be sent not less than 14 clear days for all other general meetings.

Separate resolutions are proposed at general meetings on each substantial issue, including the election of individual directors. Where bundling the resolutions cannot be avoided, the Company shall explain the reasons and material implications in the notice of the meeting.

1.4 Voting by poll

Pursuant to Bye-law 66(1) of the Bye-laws, a resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided by way of a poll save that in the case of a physical meeting, the chairman of the meeting may in good faith, allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands. The rights of shareholders and the procedures for demanding a poll on resolutions at general meetings are contained in Bye-law 66(2).

After each general meeting, the poll results will be published on the websites of the Stock Exchange and the Company in the manner prescribed under Rule 13.39(5) of the Listing Rules.

2. Shareholders' communication policy²

The Board shall maintain an on-going dialogue with shareholders and in particular, use annual general meetings or other general meetings to communicate with them and encourage their participation. The Company should have a policy on payment of dividends and should disclose it in the annual report. The Company shall also make available its corporate communications and other corporate publications on the websites of the Stock Exchange and the Company.

The Board will regularly review this policy to ensure its effectiveness to suit the needs of the Company and to comply with the relevant rules and corporate governance code (“Code”).

2.1 Conduct of general meetings

The general meetings of the Company provide a forum for communication between the shareholders and the Board. Shareholders are encouraged to participate in general meetings or to appoint proxies to attend and vote at meetings for and on their behalf if they are unable to attend the meetings.

The chairman of the Board as well as chairman of the Board committees, being currently the audit committee, the remuneration committee, the nomination committee, the executive committee and the environmental, social and governance committee or in their absence, other members of the respective committees, and where applicable, the independent Board committee member(s), will be available to answer questions at annual general meetings.

The Company will also invite the external auditors to attend the annual general meeting to answer questions about the conduct of the audit, the preparation and content of the auditors' report, the accounting policies and auditor's independence.
